Please circle the level that most applies to your skier

- Kids Lesson & Program times may include organization time, rest periods, cold weather breaks, and/or play time, depending on the needs of the group. If a child refuses to participate in the program, the child will be brought indoors and a parent will be contacted.
- Please evaluate your child's skiing or snowboarding skills realistically, and remember that Sugarloaf offers many terrain challenges. If your child is unable to perform at his/her lesson or program level, Sugarloaf Team Members reserves the right to move your child to the more appropriate group.

Red/ Orange: For kids who have never skied, or who are not yet stopping reliably without the help of a person or device. Working on stopping and turning on our learning terrain.

Yellow: For kids who can turn and stop, but still need practice. Working on confidence and control with linked wedge turns.

Green: For kids comfortable using linked wedged turns and who can stop with confidence on green terrain at Sugarloaf. Working on going from wedge to parallel.

Purple: For kids who can control speed with turns and who are beginning to match skis on intermediate terrain at Sugarloaf. Working on parallel turns.

Blue: For kids who can ski on more difficult terrain at Sugarloaf and use a variety of turn sizes. They are making parallel turns on easier terrain. They have good control and confidence. Working on consistent parallel skiing on all Blue terrain at Sugarloaf.

Grey: For kids who can ski comfortably and confidently on most black terrain at Sugarloaf, using a well-rounded parallel turn. Working on refining skills and exploring the mountain
